BASIS OF COMPLAINANT'S CHARGE AGAINST THE ACCUSED:  On or about November 24, 2023, at approximately 12:30 p.m., at the Federal Correctional Institution (FCI) Tucson, on land acquired for the use of the United States and under its exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction, D.C., an inmate at FCI – Tucson who had previously been convicted of federal crimes in another district, was in the facility's law library. Another inmate, John TURSCAK , attacked D.C. with an improvised knife, stabbing D.C. approximately 22 times, causing serious bodily injury. Federal corrections officers immediately responded to the assault and deployed OC spray to subdue TURSCAK . TURSCAK told the corrections officers that he would have killed D.C. had they not responded so quickly. After TURSCAK waived his Constitutional Miranda rights, FBI agents interviewed him on November 26, 2023. At that time, TURSCAK denied wanting to kill D.C. However, TURSCAK stated that he had been thinking about assaulting D.C. for approximately one month because D.C. is a high-profile inmate. TURSCAK stated he saw an opportunity to assault D.C. in the law library on Friday, November 24, 2023, the day after Thanksgiving Day commonly known as "Black Friday." TURSCAK stated that his attack of D.C. on Black Friday was symbolic with the Black Lives Matter movement and the "Black Hand" symbol associated with the Mexican Mafia criminal organization. D.C. received emergency medical treatment for his injuries at a local hospital.
